Description

Short Description: Spread over four floors, each approximately 65m², this spacious house awaits your personal touch. The ground floor features a welcoming living area, dining space, kitchen, and a convenient toilet. Ascend to the first floor, where four bedrooms and bathrooms await, offering ample space for family and guests. The second floor mirrors the layout, providing additional accommodation options. Venture up to the attic, transformed into a studio apartment with storage, offering versatility and charm. Outside, the property boasts a generous 300m² backyard, complete with a covered terrace and a summer kitchen, perfect for outdoor entertaining and relaxation. The front yard, spanning 60m², adds to the property's charm and potential. With three parking spaces available, convenience meets history seamlessly. Additionally, a ponton in front of the house provides an ideal spot for enjoying summer days, while a dock offers the opportunity to moor a boat. While the house has been refurbished in the 1990s, it awaits a renovation to open up the spaces and reintroduce light into the home, allowing its timeless beauty to shine once more. Potential to bring history and modern living together. Connect with History, Connect with Us: Immerse yourself in the storied past of Kotor with this exceptional stone house. Contact us today to arrange a viewing and embark on a journey to own a piece of Montenegro's architectural legacy.
